There is no working paper to this item, however, Members are expected to exchange information on developments related to activities in implementation of the International Year of Biodiversity which falls under the Natural Resources Management priority of the Action Plan -the first focal area of the Action Plan. It would be appreciated if Members take note of this and come prepared for such an exchange.

All working papers have also being transmitted to the official institutional and collaborating focal points electronically. Additionally, the working papers have already been posted on our website: www.sprep.org.
